DISASTER ONE PRESENTS $15,000 DONATION TO BOYS & GIRLS CLUBS

Greensboro, NC – Disaster One’s Greensboro division today presented a $15,000 donation to the Salvation Army Boys & Girls Clubs of Greensboro. The funds are the net proceeds from the recent “Chips for Children” casino night fundraising event held to benefit the clubs.

“For some time Disaster One looked for a good cause that we could unite behind,” Disaster One president Ras Fenger said in presenting the check. “I have had the pleasure of working with executive director Jamie Cooper through

Crescent Rotary and I am deeply impressed by the results the Salvation Army Boys & Girls Clubs of Greensboro achieve in serving the youth and children in our community. “

Chips for Children was held November 7 at the Empire Room in Downtown Greensboro. Over 240 guests attended the inaugural event that included blackjack, roulette and poker tables, auctions, and prizes. No actual gambling was permitted as all proceeds were designated for the Clubs. The Greensboro Disaster One team spent most of summer and fall 2014 planning the event with the Boys & Girls Clubs.

“The efforts of Disaster One, and the heart of its president, Ras Fenger, represent the reason why The Salvation Army Boys & Girls Clubs of Greensboro are so successful in serving the youth and children of our city,” remarked Jamie Cooper, Executive Director of The Salvation Army Boys & Girls Clubs of Greensboro. “It is the collaborative effort of the community that makes our organization successful in all that we do, thank you to Disaster One for being a leader in this effort.”

“With a tagline of GREAT FUTURES START HERE you might say the Boys & Girls Clubs of Greensboro are a kindred spirit with Disaster One, where we’re all about Restoring Your Future,” Fenger added. “In our own way, we’re both focused on making the future as bright as possible for the people we serve.”
