DISASTER ONE PRESENTS $25,000 DONATION TO THE SALVATION ARMY BOYS & GIRLS CLUBS

Greensboro, NC – Disaster One’s Greensboro division today presented a $25,000 donation to The Salvation Army Boys & Girls Clubs of Greensboro. The funds are the net proceeds from the recent “Chips for Children” casino night fundraising event held to benefit the clubs.

“The Boys & Girls Clubs of Greensboro continue to do fantastic work with at-risk kids in our neighborhood, and every dollar spent on their programs comes back many times by the successful careers of these young people,”

Disaster One president Ras Fenger said in presenting the check. “We’re thrilled that we could build on the success of last year’s event and make an even larger contribution to your efforts in 2015. “

Chips for Children was held September 25 at the Empire Room in Downtown Greensboro. More than 220 guests attended the second annual event that included blackjack, roulette and poker tables, auctions, and prizes. No actual gambling was permitted as all proceeds were designated for the Clubs. The event raised funds through a combination of corporate sponsorships, ticket sales, and donations.

“It’s amazing to see the collaborative impact on our community when you have partners, like the team at Disaster One, demonstrating their commitment to The Salvation Army Boys and Girls Club,” remarked Jamie Cooper, Executive Director of The Salvation Army Boys & Girls Clubs of Greensboro.

“Partnerships are one reason why The Salvation Army Boys & Girls Clubs of Greensboro are so successful in serving the youth and children of our city.”

“With a tagline of GREAT FUTURES START HERE you might say the Boys & Girls Clubs of Greensboro are a kindred spirit with Disaster One, where we’re all about Restoring Your Future,” Fenger added. “In our own way, we’re both focused on making the future as bright as possible for the people we serve.”
