ENTERPRISE HOLDINGS FOUNDATION PRESENTS $1,500 GRANT TO CHIPS FOR CHILDREN CHARITY FUNDRAISER

Greensboro, NC – The Enterprise Holdings Foundation awarded a $1,500 grant to Disaster One’s Chips for Children casino night charity fundraising event supporting the Salvation Army Boys & Girls Clubs of Greensboro. Enterprise Holdings representatives visited Disaster One’s corporate headquarters on May 19 to make the presentation.

“We’re extremely grateful to the Enterprise Holdings Foundation for this grant,” said Disaster One president Rasmus Fenger. “An early investment in these young club members will pay long-term dividends, not just for the club members but also for our community and our country. Chips for Children will increase our investment thanks to their support.”

Chips for Children takes place on September 30, 2016 in Greensboro. To learn more, visit www.ChipsForChildren.com.
